

Indigenous Employment Strategy

Employment Register

Please read this information carefully before completing the attached registration form

All persons who lodge registrations will have their details recorded on the University's Indigenous Employment Register. As the main aim of the University's Indigenous Employment Strategy is to develop and implement an active and responsive long-term strategy which will significantly improve Indigenous employment demographics within the University, this Register is only available to Indigenous people.

Please ensure all sections of the registration form are completed. Information provided will be treated confidentially.

Those registered must contact the Indigenous Employment Officer if any of their personal details change or if they obtain employment elsewhere and are no longer available for consideration for positions within the University.

The completed Registration Form and an update copy of your Resume' should be marked "Private and Confidential" and forwarded to:
